

2002.23

The Press Democrat

September 3, 2002

THE PRESS DEMOCRAT • TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 2002

DAILY ALMANAC

ON THE MOVE

The Christopher Reeve Paralysis Foundation has awarded Canine Companions for Independence a $10,000 health promotion grant in recognition of CCI's services to people with paralysis. For more information about Canine Companions in Santa Rosa, which since its founding in 1975 has graduated about 1,900 human and assistance dog teams, visit their Web site at www.caninecompanions.org.

*

The Laguna Foundation, whose mission it is to restore, enhance and protect the Laguna de Santa Rosa, has moved into offices on Morris Street. The foundation board recently elected Bob Evans as president and Diane Test as vice president. Mile Ferris was elected vice president, with Glenn Minervini-Zick as treasurer and Tom Lambert as secretary. The foundation is a nonprofit that collaborates with other nonprofit foundations and government agencies, including the Sonoma Land Trust, the Sonoma County Open Space District and California Department of Fish and Game. The foundation has an active docent program and welcomes school and adult groups interested in visiting the Laguna.

Based on sales information from the "Market Share Office" report of the Sonoma County Multiple Listing Services, Century 21, Les Ryan's Healdsburg Realtors has announced they rank No. 1 for residential sales from July to August in Healdsburg area. Agents at Les Ryan average 17 years experience, representing clients in purchases and sales of homes, land, vineyards and commercial properties. The agents are John Torres, Ramano Nuti, Fred Combs, Mike Fitzpatrick, Rena Harold, Rob Jacobi, Eric Levin, Amy Neel and Janice Schettler.

Submit On the Move items to Staff Writer Rayne Wolfe at rwolfe@pressdemocrat.com, fax to 521-5418 or mail to P.O. Box 910, Santa Rosa 95401.