CAMP TULE NATURALIST

The Laguna de Santa Rosa Foundation is now accepting applications for a Summer 2024 Camp Staff!

Join us as a Camp Tule Naturalist this summer! Located at the Laguna Environmental Center in Santa Rosa, CA, Camp Tule is a nature-based day camp for children ages 6-12. As a Naturalist, you will be a member of the Camp Tule Leadership, setting a joyful tone at camp and leading exploratory walks, environmental education activities, and games for campers.

- Plan activities and schedules while exemplifying and fostering our core values of integrity, generosity of spirit, collaboration, and innovation to help promote healthy child development.
- Supervise campers during both structured and unstructured activities and explorations.
- Support and guide Counselors and Counselors-in-Training while working as a team.
- Strengthen your leadership and environmental education teaching skills in a supportive and friendly setting.
- Spend time outdoors in a beautiful location, and enjoy days filled with exploration, discovery, creativity, and nature games all designed to connect children to the environment.

The ideal candidate displays a positive attitude and an enthusiastic desire to be a role-model, friend, and teacher to children; is dynamic, possesses integrity, flexible, and a creative team player. Must be at least 18 years old; minimum high school diploma (or equivalent) and one year experience in environmental education teaching and leadership in a formal or informal setting.

The Laguna de Santa Rosa Foundation is a watershed-based 501(c)3 non-profit organization in Sonoma County. We work to restore and conserve the Laguna and its surrounding watershed, and to inspire appreciation of the vital wetland habitats and the plant and animal communities that rely on it.
